Once upon a time,
there was a beauty-full
magical tropical island
called Vanna.

One day Rainbow Lovebird
saw Laffter the Dolphin bringing a girl to the island.

Why don't you dance while I sing for you?

Colette, the little girl
and Rainbow Love bird
meet. Colette asks Rainbow to sing.

Chee Chee Monkey comes to get Rainbow. Humans are cutting trees.

Rainbow, Chee Chee,
and Colette decide to get help. They visit Wally Hippo who is singing in his bath.

King Leo Lion comes
to drink at Wally's Pool.
Maybe he will have some answers.

Together, the animals and little girl go to see the Queen Mother Tree Ezmarelda. She tells them they must find human friends or all is lost.

Looking for loving humans and little girls go across Vanna.
They travel to the village of the mud people
and watch as a mudman sings about life. The animals are afraid of his spear.

Colette talked to the mudman asking for help. He took her to see Sir Samuel Laffcount, a scientist who came to Vanna to live in harmony with the plants and animals. Sammy told Colette: "Love is the answer."

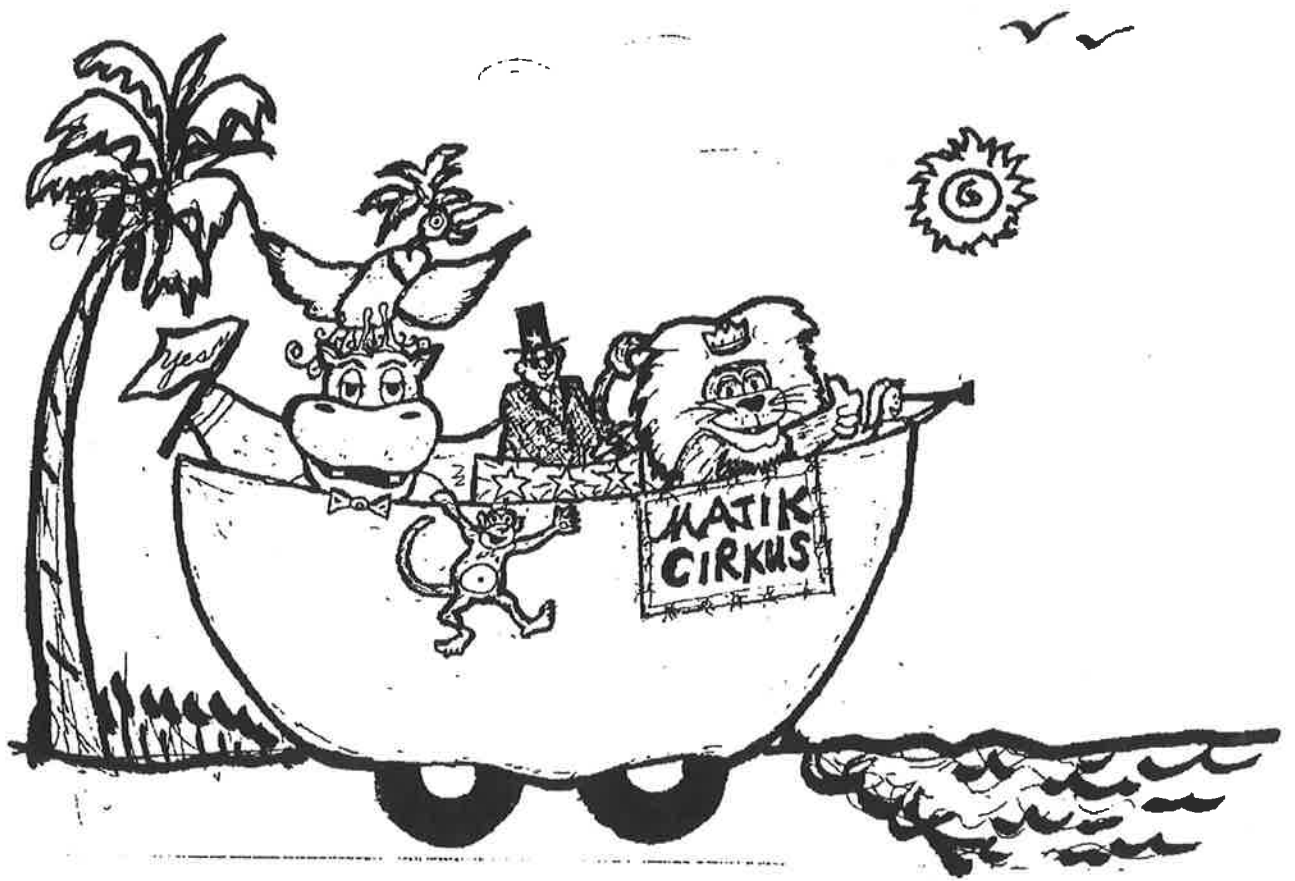

After Sammy sang Mother Nature appeared. She gave gifts to Colette - a magic ring and necklace. Mother Nature told Colette and her friends Sammy, Leo, Rainbow, & Wally to form a MAJIK CIRKUS.

Chee Chee wanted to be in the MAJIK CIRKUS too, Rainbow only laughed
at him. Mother Nature gave Chee Chee a magic harp and rattle saying that noone is too small to do his part.

Sammy, Colette, and the animals told Mother Nature goodbye. Then they all climbed aboard Sammy's motorboat car. They were headed for America to bring joy to children as the MAJIK CIRKUS.

Dedicated to the loving memory of Colette Chuda, a beautiful little girl
who loved Nature-
the plants and animals.

THE MAJIK CIRKUS

Fun fanciful spelling for kids

The Majik Cirkus uses fanciful spelling. This means that some words are spelled in a fun way, but not the right way. See if you can find the four fanciful words while you are reading the story.

Here is a list of the fanciful words. The correct spelling is underlined:

- 1) Majik-- is usually spelled magic. There are some who say that the word majik is an old old spelling of the word magic and that majik means Mother Nature's energy moving out like a karate chop.
- 2) Cirkus-- should be spelled circus. Circus is a hard word to spell because the first C is soft (meaning it sounds like s) and the second C is "hard" (meaning it sounds like k) . So now you know how to spell circus correctly. The Majik Cirkus was named and spelled by a bunch of dumb animals who did not know any better... and the name just stuck.
- 3) Beauty-full-- is spelled beautiful... just take the word beauty, drop the 'y' and add an 'i' with 'ful' and you get beautiful.
- 4) Laffter-- laughter is the sound of people laughing. Laffter is a dolphin's name.

We had fun with this spelling game and hope you did too!

The Majik Cirkus is fun for everyone!
